Mental Game of Pocket Billiards:

4 of 4 review helpful More than a pleasure By Rick Jennings Great book insightful into how and why people play Changed my attitude about the game and helped me to focus on what s important My game has improved and I am not so easily sharked I now practice drills and helpful aspects of the game with excitement not merely pleasure A first rate book able to add class to your style and outlook Thanks 13 of 18 review Pleasures of Small Motions is the only book on billiards written by an expert on psychology Everyone who plays pool says it s mostly mental Until now though no one with any expertise on the mind has written about the game Bob Fancher Dr T Bob Pool Shrink of The American Cueist Magazine changes that Now you can find out what light real science about the mind sheds on pocket billiards A very practical book Fancher s logic and evidence are very persuasive This could be a breakthrough book for your game Pool Billiards Magazine February 2001 One brilliant piece of writing It is the best ten bucks you wil
