Master:

1 of 1 review helpful the little master By Grant Green This is a quality production by UQ Press I learned a lot about Norman Von Nida from reading it I like the format too small in statue like the von himself It is a pocket book that is great to read It is not a novel it is dozens of short entries and chapters of his life with forewards by Gary PLayer and Jack Nicklaus shows you what a well loved man mr Von Nida Norman von Nida The Von is a national treasure Australia s last remaining link to a glorious era in sport which stretches back to the late 1920s The creation of this book has been a remarkable collaboration between eighty five year old Norman von Nida and the thirty year old Ben Robertson Ben is a journalist by training and aspired to be a book writer Norman cannot write because of his blindness yet wanted his life story told in his own words The process
