0 of 0 review helpful One Good Guy befriends One Great Guy By Robert K Blair The King and I by Howdy Giles represents a real life story of a dream come true for Mr Giles I happen to know it is a true story I first met Howdy in 1974 when I became a patient of a promising young dentist upon relocating to Wilmington On my initial visit when I was leaning back in the dental chair for an exam I saw a very large picture Howdy and Arnold rsquo s friendship began with a rather ordinary encounter nearly 50 years ago when Howard Giles snapped a simple photograph of his hero passing in a parade it has since grown into a remarkable friendship between an American legend and his most ardent fan Since that time Giles has conservatively snapped more than a quarter million photographs of Palmer Sharing never before seen images of Palmer on and off the golf course over the past four decades About the Author

Howdy Giles served in the Navy first as an intern in the San Diego Naval Hospital and finally as a dentist aboard the USS Fulton Along with his love for photography Howdy is an avid golfer He lives in Wilmington Delaware
